How we use your information

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2016 and Data Protection Act (DPA) 2018, the RCOG will process your personal data to provide you with your member benefits and services, and to carry out its day-to-day business.

RCOG requires the above information to process your application and to administrate your training records. We will store your personal information such as name, nationality, date of birth, address, telephone number, email address, employment status and location, RCOG No. and educational information. Your name and RCOG number will be used to verify your identity.

Where RCOG is required to confirm details of your qualifications and membership, we will only share this data with bona fide third parties. These include governmental and medical regulatory bodies, educational institutions and prospective employers. The information will only be released where there is a statutory, regulatory or lawful basis to do so and RCOG will obtain your consent where we do not.

Full information on how the RCOG processes your personal data can be found in our Data Protection Policy and Privacy Policy on our website: www.rcog.org.uk.

If you are unhappy with the way we are processing your data and would like to make a complaint or wish to make an individual rights request, please contact the Research and Information Services Team at dataprotection@rcog.org.uk or in writing to:

Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists
